

FIVE YEARS OF SERVICE
CALE SMITH – FEBRUARY 2004
Senior Police Officer – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Cale graduated from Inglemoor High School in Kenmore, Washington. He received the Associate of Arts Degree from Walla Walla Community College with a General Major and a minor in Criminal Justice. He has training with the Tarrant County Basic Peace Officer Academy and is a Field Training Officer. He has training with Texas Tactical Police Officers Association (Basic SWAT). Cale also has training with the Brinkman-Froemming Professional Umpire's School in Cocoa Beach, Florida.

Employment Background & Experience:

Cale was a Minor League Umpire from 1996 to 2003 for the Major League Baseball League and the National Association Professional Baseball League.

Awards, Recognition, & Associations:

Cale was commended in August 2007 for apprehending the "Tattoo Bandit" – a female armed robber who wreaked havoc in the DFW area. He is a member of the North Texas College Umpires Association and was an Associate Scout for the Seattle Mariners. He is also a member of the Euless Peace Officer's Association. He enjoys golf, hunting, and baseball.

