

Proclamation

THE CITY OF

EULESS

Texas

Whereas: our nation's school, academic, public and special libraries make a difference in the lives of millions of Americans, today, more than ever; and

WHEREAS, librarians are trained professionals, helping people of all ages and backgrounds find and interpret the information they need to live, learn and work in a challenging economy; and

WHEREAS, libraries are part of the American Dream – places for opportunity, education, self-help and lifelong learning. Library use is up nationwide among all types of library users, continuing a decade-long trend; and

WHEREAS, libraries can help you discover a world of knowledge, both in person and online, as well as personal service and assistance in finding what you need, when you need it; and

WHEREAS, libraries are a key player in the national discourse on intellectual freedom, equity of access, and narrowing the “digital divide”.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mary Lib Saleh, Mayor of the City of Eules, Texas, proclaim April 12-18, 2009, as:

National Library Week

with The Campaign for America’s Libraries and encourage all residents to visit the library this week to take advantage of the wonderful library resources available and thank their librarians and library workers for making information accessible to all who walk through the library’s doors. Worlds connect @ your library.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereby set my hand and seal of the City of Eules to be affixed this 14th day of April, 2009.

Mary Lib Saleh, Mayor
