

TEN YEARS OF SERVICE
GREG CAMERON – JULY 1999
Leadman – Public Works

Education, Training & Licenses:

Greg graduated from Henderson High School in Henderson, Texas. He attended Kilgore College in pursuit of a degree in Drafting. He later attended Tarrant County College working towards a degree in Construction Management. He currently holds a Class C Water Distribution certificate from Texas Commission on Environmental Quality and a pest-control license through the Texas Department of Agriculture. He has also completed many job-related safety training programs.

Employment Background & Experience:

He was a stocker for Brookshire Brothers and later worked as a laborer for Boral Bricks. From 1994 to 1999, he held security and public safety positions. In August 2005, he was promoted from Field Tech I to Field Tech III. He promoted to Leadman in August 2006.

Awards, Recognition, & Associations:

Greg received the Employee of the Month Award in September, 2006. Greg has been married to his wife, Karla, for four years. He has two children, Quinton and Lanesha.

