

EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR - 2009

JOE HOERTH

Senior Police Corporal – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Joe is a graduate of Richardson High School in Richardson, Texas. He earned his Bachelor's Degree in General Studies of Emergency Management from the University of North Texas (with a minor in Aircraft Maintenance Management at Pikes Peak Community College in Colorado). Joe holds a Master Peace Officer License. He has participated in a variety of training, including: Firearms, Cultural Diversity, National Association of Police Driving, Shooting Reconstruction, Basic Police Supervision, and Special Investigative Topics.

Employment Background & Experience:

Prior to employment with the City of Euless, Joe worked for over six years as an Aircraft Technician at Delta Air Lines, and still enjoys being around airplanes in his spare time. Following High School, Joe worked on custom-home building in north Dallas and worked at a medical facility while he was attending school for his Federal Aviation License. He promoted from Police Officer to Corporal in March, 1998. In January, 2008, he promoted to his current position of Senior Police Corporal.

Awards, Recognition, Associations, & Personal Data:

Joe has received numerous letters of commendation throughout his tenure. He was the 1996 Rookie of the Year and the 1998 Officer of the Year. Joe enjoys hiking in the mountains, visits to the beach, along with most outdoor activities. Joe and his wife, Vicki, live in Coppell with their son and daughter (Bradford and Morgan).

