

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF SERVICE
TROY REMINGTON – SEPTEMBER 1986
Lieutenant – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Troy graduated from McLain High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He attended Tulsa Junior College, Tarrant County College, and Columbia College and is pursuing his degree in Criminal Justice Administration. He holds the following certifications/licenses: NRA Certified Police Firearms Instructor, Master Peace Officers License, Instructor's License, and TCLEOSE Firearms Instructor.

Employment Background & Experience:

Troy has a varied work history. He was a Stocker at Sears Roebuck in 1979; a Mechanic's Helper at Equipment Parts, Inc. in 1980-81; a Security Technician for three years at Dowell Schlumberger; a Security Officer in 1984; and a Patrolman for the City of Owasso Police Department from 1984-86. He began his career with the City of Euless as a Police Officer in September 1986. He promoted to Police Corporal in January 1993 and to Police Sergeant in November 1995. In June 2011, he promoted to his current position of Police Lieutenant in the Patrol Division.

Awards, Recognition, & Associations:

His commendations include the 1992 Distinguished Service Award, 20 Year Safe Driving Pin, and the 2004 Supervisor of the Year Award. Troy is a member of the National Tactical Officer's Association and Texas Tactical Police Officer's Association. He is also a life member of the National Rifle Association. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, and cross country motorcycle riding. He is proud that his nephew, son and brother are all members of law enforcement. He and his wife will be celebrating their 30th Wedding Anniversary in October.

