

THIRTY YEARS OF SERVICE
ROGER GATLIN – June 1982
Corporal – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Roger graduated from Lexington High School in Lexington, Tennessee. He attended West Tennessee Business College in Jackson, Tennessee and Tarrant County College in Fort Worth in pursuit of a degree in Criminal Justice and minor in Business. He has earned over 280 education hours and over 1630 training hours. Roger has received training in: Background Investigations, Crisis Intervention, Terrorism and Homeland Security, Narcotics Investigations, Family Violence and Child Abuse, Management and Supervision, and SWAT/Tactical Training. He holds the following licenses: Master Peace Officer, Mental Health Officer, School Resource Officer, and Basic Instructor. For the past several years, he has been working at Central Junior High as the School Resource Officer.

Employment Background & Experience:

Roger worked as a police officer for the Jackson Police Department from 1975-1976. He also worked in Communications from 1976-1980 for the Tennessee Highway Patrol. He worked as a police officer for the City of Euless from September 1980 to November 1982. After a brief absence, he returned to the City of Euless Police Department in September 1984. While with the Euless Police Department, he has held the positions of Police Officer, Field Training Officer, Acting Sergeant, and Corporal.

Awards, Recognition, Associations, & Personal Data:

He is a member of the Euless Peace Officer Association. Roger was awarded the 1987 Police Officer of the Year. In his spare time, he enjoys golf, baseball, traveling, and woodworking.

