

Proclamation

THE CITY OF

EULESS

Texas

Whereas: libraries everywhere play a vital role in supporting the quality of life in their communities. Our nation's school, academic, public and special libraries make a difference in the lives of millions of Americans, today, more than ever; and

WHEREAS, librarians are trained professionals, helping people of all ages and backgrounds find and interpret the information they need to live, learn and work in a challenging economy; and

WHEREAS, libraries serve as crucial technology hubs for people in need of free Web access, computer training, and assistance finding job resources. Libraries are part of the American Dream – places for opportunity, education, self-help and lifelong learning; and

WHEREAS, library use is up nationwide among all types of library users, continuing a decade-long trend.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mary Lib Saleh, Mayor of the City of Eules, Texas, proclaim April 14-20, 2013, as:

National Library Week

and encourage all residents to visit the library this week to take advantage of the wonderful library resources available @ your Eules Public Library. Communities Matter @ your library.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereby set my hand and seal of the City of Eules to be affixed this 9th day of April, 2013.

Mary Lib Saleh, Mayor
