

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS OF SERVICE
CAROLYN HOALDRIDGE – OCTOBER 1978
Circulation Supervisor – Library

Education, Training & Licenses:

Carolyn graduated from Trinity High School in Euless and received her Associate in Arts Degree from Tarrant County College in 1999.

Employment Background & Experience:

Between 1973 and 1978, she worked part-time for the Euless Library; she transferred to a full-time position as a Librarian/Clerk I in 1978. Since that time, she has held various positions in several divisions of the Library. She is proud to say that the Euless Public Library has been her only employer.

Awards, Recognition, & Associations:

She is a member of the Texas Library Association. Carolyn has twice been recognized as the City of Euless Employee of the Month (December 1992 and again in January 2002). She and her husband live in the country and have two cats, four cows, and one bull. She names each of them, hates to sell them, and feeds them powdered donuts and Cheetos!
