

TEN YEARS OF SERVICE
COTY BUSH – JANUARY 2004
Senior Officer – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Coty grew up in Hurst, Texas and attended the University of Texas. She attended the police academy at Tarrant County College, and was the salutatorian of her class, as well as appointed to a position as squad leader. She currently holds her Advanced Peace Officer Certification and the rank of Senior Police Officer. She has held positions as a Crime Scene Technician, been a member of the Hostage Negotiations Team, and received training and certifications in multiple areas of law enforcement including Mental Health Peace Officer, Advanced Hostage Negotiations, SAFVIC (Sexual Assault and Family Violence Investigator) and Basic Fingerprint Identification. Currently, Coty is assigned to the CID division, investigating primarily crimes of domestic violence, crimes against children and sexual assaults.

Employment Background & Experience:

After college, Coty joined the City of Euless as a 9-1-1 Dispatcher in January 2004 and was sworn in as Police Officer at the completion of the academy in November, 2005.

Awards, Recognition, & Associations:

Coty was nominated for the Bill Harvell Award in the Euless Police Department. In 2012, she was also selected out of NE Tarrant County area law enforcement personnel to attend the Alliance For Children multi-disciplinary team statewide workshops.

