SUMMARY OF SUBJECT:

Name of Applicant: Erica Crosley, Pride of Texas Music Festival

Request / Location: Temporary Use Permit for a music festival to be located at 1201 W. Airport Freeway. The zoning of the property is (PD) Planned Development district.

Pride of Texas Music Festivals is a series of music festivals oriented for performance by elementary, middle school and junior high bands, choirs and orchestras. The festival occurs in five events throughout the State of Texas. For four days, Tuesday, May 6, through Friday, May 9, the student music groups will perform within an outdoor weatherproof tent outside of iT'Z.

The performances will be on a rotating schedule from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM on the four days of the festival. A 40' X 80' commercial tent with walls will be erected behind the iT'Z building outside of all fire lanes. A commercial tent permit will be processed through the Fire Department.

No food service will be provided within the tent, the festival will be using iT'Z for food service and restroom facilities. A security guard will be supervising the tent on overnight duty.

Pride of Texas Music Festival has completed an application detailing their intended operations. Staff has reviewed the application and recommends approval.
