

TWENTY YEARS OF SERVICE
KEVIN DANIEL – MAY 1994
Lead Public Service Officer – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Kevin is a graduate of Haltom High School and graduated with a BBA Cum Laude in Business Administration from LeTourneau University and the University of North Texas with a minor in Music/Biblical Studies. He has received training in the Police Academy, Property Management, FEMA, and was previously a licensed Breath Test Operator. Kevin also holds the following licenses and certifications: Property Management, NCIC/TCIC, and Texas Food Management.

Employment Background & Experience:

Prior to employment with the City of Euless, Kevin worked for Sansom Survey Company and at Dillards as an Advertising Clerk and Copy Writer. He currently holds the position of Lead Public Service Officer where he is assigned to the Property Room, Quartermaster, and Jail. He also is the Owner/Chef of J Daniel Catering.

Awards, Recognition, & Associations:

Kevin has received the following awards: 1996 Euless Police Department Distinguished Service, 2002 & 2004 Civilian of the Year, 2007 Blackie Sustaire Award, and the March 2007 Employee of the Month. He teaches property/evidence to the HEB-ISD high school law enforcement students and is involved with church ministries (worship music, Biblical education, and mission endeavors). He also is a private lesson teacher through the Texas Music Educators Association.

