New Rules For Old
Grace Fellowship

Marvin Bunky Mitchell, Pastor
Cindy Mitchell

For eighteen years we did homeless ministry in Fort Worth at a place called "The Slab". It was on the corner of I35 & Rosedale, and very effective outreach to the indigent. As that work ended we had begun prison ministry with another outreach. As that outreach ended we became an evangelist team and for about ten years we continued that work.

(NLFO) Grace Fellowship grew from a weekly meeting from house to house to a small fellowship needing a permanent home. Republic Tire Owner, Mike Miller, was willing to rent a part of his business for a very reasonable rate. We are set up for about 50, and up to 15 children/youth on Sunday and Wednesday. We expect this Fellowship to go as is and not grow to a big crowd. We may have 20 one week & 30 the next.

Thank you for considering our application

Cindy Mitchell
