

TEN YEARS OF SERVICE
CAROLYN EDGE – AUGUST 2005
Librarian Assistant - Library

Education, Training & Licenses:

Carolyn is a graduate of Irving High School in Irving where she was very involved in Journalism. She earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Speech & Drama (with concentration in Radio-TV-Film) from the University of North Texas in Denton, with a minor in Journalism. She eagerly participates in job-related training, seminars, and workshops.

Employment Background & Experience:

For three years, Carolyn served as a Production Coordinator for The Las Colinas Association in Irving. She worked as a Sales Coordinator/Secretary for CF AirFreight in Grapevine for about a year. For ten years, she served as a PC Specialist for Publicis/Bloom in Dallas. She has also worked as a radio DJ and news director in Oklahoma and worked in the Cable Television Industry and in advertising. From October 2002 to August 2005, she worked as a Part-Time Library Assistant for the Euless Public Library. She has been on Full-Time status with Euless since August 18, 2005.

Awards, Recognition, Associations, & Personal Data:

Carolyn is a member of the UNT Alumni Association and the Mean Green Club. She was inducted into the NTSU Women's Honorary Journalism Society (Theta Sigma Phi). While at Publicis/Bloom, she was the recipient of "Special Recognition Award for Excellence" and "Chairman's Award" in 1988 and 1995. She volunteers at Arbor Daze and is the staff contact with the SCORE organization. Her book paper crafting and graphic skills are visible in Library displays, and she willingly steps up to cover all areas of the Library when there is a need. Being an "Air Force Brat", her family was stationed at many locations. While in Alaska, she won her elementary school spelling bee and competed in the Alaska State Spelling Bee. She also survived the 1964 Alaskan Earthquake. She enjoys Mean Green football and basketball, music from the 60's and 70's, and reading Science Fiction/Fantasy and historical mysteries.
