

FIVE YEARS OF SERVICE
JAMES PATTERSON – FEBRUARY 2011
Inspector I – Code Compliance/Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

James received his high school diploma through Abeka Video Academy in Pensacola, Florida. He is currently attending courses at Tarrant County College where he has earned 58 credit hours. His certifications include: Registered Code Enforcement Officer through The State of Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS), Certified Food Manager, Certified Pool Operator, International Property Maintenance and Housing Inspector and has completed CODE Enforcement Officer II training through Texas A&M Engineering Extension Services (TEEX).

Employment Background & Experience:

Prior to joining the City of Euless, James was the Branch Manager of My Credit Union from 2009-2011. He also worked as Assistant Store Manager for Office Depot in Hurst from 2000-2008 and 2009-2010, and was the owner of G. C. and More from 2004-2009. He was promoted to Lead Code Enforcement Officer in 2013.

Awards, Recognition, Associations, & Personal Data:

James is a member of Harvest Christian Center Church of God, Euless Police Officer Association (EPOA), Texas Environmental Health Association (TEHA), International CODE Council (ICC), Building Professional Institute (BPI) CODE Enforcement Training Moderator at UTA. He has received the following awards: Euless PD Blackie Sustaire Memorial Award in 2011 and the Employee of Month in July 2012. He enjoys spending time with family and friends, helping at church, teaching classes at church each week (Pre-Teen Sunday School and Royal Rangers class on Wednesday evenings).

