ECPAAA Mission Statement

"To provide the citizens of Euless a better understanding of the dedication and integrity of the police department"

Notes from the President

THANK YOU!

May I thank all of you for renewing your commitment to the Euless Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association. Because of you, we are getting stronger every year.

When I reviewed my notes from our last meeting, I realized that we had gotten a lot accomplished.

Karen Duncan has a team to help her with the newsletter. She and Ann Zimmerman did a fantastic job with our newsletter in the past, but now the burden can be more evenly distributed. Debbie Wright, Byron Benoit, Mark Merrick and Barney Snitz have all agreed to work with her – thank you! Of course, we can all help by submitting items for inclusion in the newsletter.

Leah Benoit, J. R. Goad and Lou Baum have agreed to again accept the challenge of helping us raise funds for those we serve – thank you! Theirs is a difficult task, and I'm sure they would appreciate suggestions from you. So please do not hesitate to share your ideas.

Thanks to Sharon Finnegan, Jackie Benner, Helen

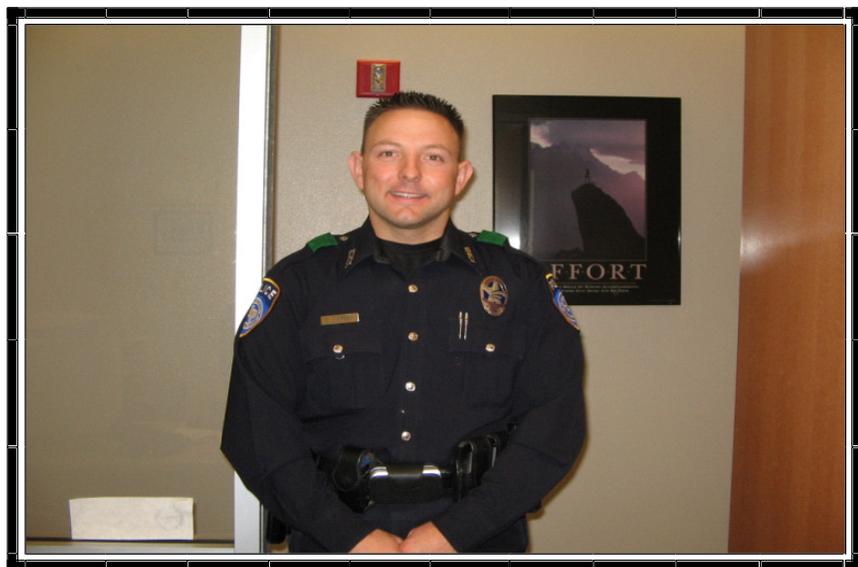

Wagner and Susan Vest for agreeing to serve as the Hospitality Committee. They take good care of us, but please remember they cannot do it alone; they need our help.

Wes Weeks has graciously agreed to serve as our representative to CPANNT, Citizens Police Academy Alumni of North Texas. It's a good thing he agreed to represent us since he was elected their treasurer for 2006 – congratulations! Euless will host the June meeting, and Nancy Kraft and Debbie Wright have offered to assist Wes in preparing for that date. Thank you all!

My sincere thanks to the By-Laws committee – Wes Weeks, Chris Shanahan, Al Simmenroth, and Debbie Wright. You have an awesome task, and we will soon have our first rendezvous.

Thank you all for being you!

If you missed the January meeting you missed meeting a great guy. Cpl. David Parker. New Neighborhood officer for District 1 and 2.
