

Weldon G. Cannon History Files

DAIRYING IN EULESS

In this folder donated to the City of Euless, labeled DAIRYING IN EULESS, are a few key documents and other materials from files donated to The University of Texas at Arlington for the Weldon G. Cannon Euless Collection in the Special Collections of the University Library. Following is a brief summary of materials in 1 folder under this subject that were donated to UTA.

1. DAIRYING IN EULESS

Folder contents

Outline of possible treatment of subject; a few interviews; 1/4".

This would be a good topic for a Texas Historical marker at Euless. It was an important business in Euless and provided an important product for the cities of Dallas and Fort Worth. Weldon Cannon

DAIRYING IN EULESS

Dairying was an important business in Euless in the first half of the 20th century.

Geography contributed to the development.

Euless dairymen went to Tennessee and elsewhere to get good milk cows and breeding stock.

Some dairymen and dairies

Life at a dairy

Tennessee Dairies Company of Dallas established a milk collection plant in Euless.

Fuller Bros. Grocery and Feed supplied the needs of local dairymen

Bibliography

Rose, Glada Horton—interview

and some other interviews with Trigg-Wright, Borah, Lipe, Gleghorn, etc., families

See the collection about dairying from Ed Havran of Colleyville at Texas Tech.