Bring your family to the Eules Library on weekends in December to make free holiday ornaments.

Dear Citizens,

I am pleased to share some exciting job announcements. Wes Rhodes has been promoted to Assistant City Manager for the City of Eules. For the past 10 years, Wes served as Fire Chief and focused on community involvement, regional training, empowering the ranks and maintaining open lines of communication. Chanc Bennett has been promoted from Asst. Chief to Fire Chief. Chanc has worked in Eules for 27 years. He's a team player who is passionate about the fire service and will be a great leader for the Eules Fire Department. Heather Moorhead is our new Director of Human Resources and Risk Management. Heather brings a wealth of knowledge to Eules about all things HR and will be a great addition to the team. Lastly, stop by and introduce yourself to our new Director of Planning & Economic Development, Michael Warrix. Michael has great experience in municipal planning, marketing, community development and business recruitment and retention.

Wes, Chanc, Heather and Michael all have impressive resumes and exceptional leadership skills. I'm looking forward to working with them in the coming months.

Heritage Park Christmas

*Saturday, December 11, 11 - 3 p.m.
Heritage Park, 201 Cullum Drive*

After last year's cancellation, you can once again celebrate an old-fashioned Christmas at historic Heritage Park. Visit the Himes Log House, McCormick Barn, Fuller House and the Eules Heritage Museum and learn about Eules history. You can listen to local choirs sing your Christmas favorites, visit our petting zoo and let little ones ride a pony. Kids can visit Santa Claus. There will be kettle corn for sale along with free refreshments for everyone. Holiday cheer and Eules history wrapped up in one great afternoon. If you have questions, please call Chance Boyd at 817-685-1814, or e-mail him cboyd@eulesstx.gov.

Free Christmas Parade of Lights

*Saturday, Dec. 4, 6:30 p.m.
Along Midway Dr. - From 157 to the Aquatic Park parking lot*

Even a pandemic won't spoil this year's spectacular display of moving lights. Organizations of all kinds may enter floats for free in the best parade in Texas. Parade award winners will be announced on www.eulesstx.gov on Monday, December 6. For more information, contact Chance Boyd at cboyd@eulesstx.gov or 817-685-1814. Experience the excitement of the season and see Eules sparkle!

Bring the family to the Eules Family Life Center from 3 - 6 p.m. for free ornament crafts before the parade. We provide the supplies; you bring your creativity. Enjoy free treats, hot chocolate and karaoke.

Euless Fire Chief Promoted to Assistant City Manager

Euless City Manager Loretta Getchell announced that Wes Rhodes has been promoted to Assistant City Manager for the City of Eules. Rhodes has served as Fire Chief of Eules for the past ten years. Before his career in Eules, Rhodes worked in Haltom City for twenty-five years. Starting his career as a Firefighter/EMT, he worked his way through the ranks as Fire Lieutenant, Fire Captain, Deputy Fire Chief and finally as Fire Chief. Rhodes has been a Fire Academy Instructor at Tarrant County College since 1995.

Rhodes holds an Associate's Degree in Applied Science Fire Technology from Tarrant County College and is a Certified Public Manager through Texas State University. He is a Fire Service Chief Executive Officer through Texas A&M University and holds numerous fire certifications.

Animal Shelter Fosters Needed for the Holidays

The Euless Animal Shelter needs your support to help keep dogs and cats out of the shelter and in foster homes. Animal rescues are much happier in a home environment. Would you like to help by fostering a dog or cat? We have experienced volunteers who can provide training and resources to answer your questions. If you can help by being a foster parent, please call Larry Atkinson at 817-685-1594 or fill out a foster application online at www.eulesstx.gov/animal.

Chanc Bennett Promoted to Fire Chief

Chanc Bennett has been promoted to Fire Chief for the City of Eules. Bennett has served as the Assistant Fire Chief of Eules for the past three years and Division Chief before that for six years. Bennett has spent the past twenty-seven years in Eules. He is an Adjunct Instructor at the Tarrant County College Fire Service Training Center and is a Technical Search Specialist for Texas Task Force One, a FEMA search and rescue team.

He holds an Associate's Degree in Applied Science Fire Protection from Tarrant County College, became a licensed paramedic through UT Southwestern Medical School and obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Emergency Management from West Texas A&M University. He also graduated from the Police Academy at Weatherford College and the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland. He holds numerous fire certifications and is a graduate of the Texas Fire Chiefs Academy as well as a Certified Fire Executive.
