Texas Star Golf Course to Re-Open in October

The City of Euless is delighted to announce that the renovated Texas Star Golf Course will re-open on Wednesday, October 1.

From arriving on the property to finishing on the 18th hole, guests will enjoy an enhanced experience. Some of the upgrades include renovated restrooms in the clubhouse, a new fleet of golf carts, improved bunkers, and new greens.

"Texas Star has been one of the most beloved golf courses in the DFW area since opening in 1997," said Glenda Hartsell, General Manager of Texas Star Golf Course. "Now, 28 years later, it remains one of the top-ranked public courses in North Texas."

Members can make tee times 10 days in advance, and tee times are available for the general public five days in advance. Euless residents are eligible to receive a 15 percent discount on green fees with proof of residency when checking in.

"Although we were closed the entire summer, we are confident our guests will be impressed with the transformation of the playing conditions," Hartsell added. "We officially re-open for play on October 1, so start thinking about scheduling a tee time soon. You will want to be among the first to experience the new and improved Texas Star!"

Visit texasstargolf.com to reserve your tee time.

Fire Prevention Week

October 5 - 11

“Charge into Fire Safety™:
Lithium-Ion Batteries in Your Home”

The Eules Fire Department is teaming up with the National Fire Protection Association® (NFPA®), the official sponsor of Fire Prevention Week™ (FPW™) for more than 100 years, to promote this year’s FPW campaign, “Charge into Fire Safety™: Lithium-Ion Batteries in Your Home.” It highlights how important it is to buy, charge, and recycle lithium-ion batteries safely.

Lithium-ion batteries power most of the electronics we use in our homes. These include smartphones, tablets, power and lawn tools, laptops, e-cigarettes, headphones, and toys. In fact, most everything that is rechargeable uses this type of battery.

If not used correctly or if damaged, lithium-ion batteries can overheat, start a fire, or even explode. To reduce these risks, look around your home to know which devices are powered by them. Lithium-ion batteries are powerful, convenient and they are just about everywhere. This year’s Fire Prevention Week campaign helps people understand the importance of using these batteries correctly to prevent fires in the home and to follow the Buy, Charge, and Recycle Safely approach.

Buy only listed products

- When buying a product that uses a lithium-ion battery, take time to research it. Look for a stamp from a nationally-recognized testing lab on the packaging and product, which means that it meets important safety standards.
- Many products sold online and in stores may not meet safety standards and could increase the risk of fire.

Charge devices safely

- Always use the cables that come with the product to charge it. Follow the instructions from the manufacturer.
- If you need a new charger, buy one from the manufacturer or one that the manufacturer has approved.
- Charge your device on a hard surface. Don’t charge it under a pillow, on a bed, or on a couch. This could cause a fire.
- Do not overcharge your device. Unplug the device from the charger when it’s fully charged.

Recycle batteries responsibly

- Do not throw lithium-ion batteries in the trash or curbside recycling bins because they could catch fire.
- Recycle your lithium-ion batteries at a safe battery recycling location, like Crud Day, which is on Saturday, November 1.

The Eules Fire Department encourages all residents to be aware of their devices, follow the Buy, Charge, and Recycle Safely approach, and support this year’s FPW theme, “Charge into Fire Safety™.” For more information about Fire Prevention Week and lithium-ion battery safety, visit fpw.org. Additional fire prevention resources for children, caregivers, and educators can be found at Sparky.org and SparkySchoolhouse.org.

Mark Your Calendars for Crud Day and Shred Day

Saturday, November 1, 9 – 11 a.m.

Eules City Hall, 201 N. Ector Drive

Eules residents are invited to safely dispose of hazardous household waste such as paint, chemicals, and oils at the annual Crud Day. The City of Fort Worth's Crud Cruiser mobile collection trailer can accept materials from approximately 125 households, so space is limited. You may also bring any small electrical appliances you would like to recycle like computers, radios, VCRs, stereos, clocks, and hair dryers.

Once the mobile collection unit reaches capacity, residents may deliver materials to the Environmental Collection Center (ECC), which is located at 6400 Bridge Street in Fort Worth. For ECC directions and hours of operation, please call 817-392-1234.

The City of Eules is charged for each household at Crud Day and at the ECC, so residents are encouraged to make the most of their trips.

Residents can also dispose of sensitive papers at the annual Shred Day. Bring discarded papers and important documents to Eules' drive-through disposal for shredding and recycling. Papers may contain thin metals such as staples or paperclips, or even rubber bands. Please do not bring CDs, jump drives, three-ring binders, or plastic bags. Each vehicle may bring up to five boxes of paper in standard-size boxes (15" x 12" x 10") or paper grocery bags.

Proof of Eules residency is required to participate in Crud Day, Shred Day, and to dispose of waste at the ECC. For a complete list of accepted hazardous and electronic waste, please visit www.eulesstx.gov/hazmat or call 817-685-1821.
